by ANNA LEE WESTON

Oh beautiful Katy, our Pin-up Queen
You ought to be on a Movie Screen
When Lucki Red or Gloria try to butt in,
Turn on your charm and you'll always win!

That Lucki Red thinks she's smart
Although she's really good at heart
Remember when she gave you that beautiful cake?
When you didn't have a chance to bake?

You have many, many a nice boy-friend
Your phone rings all day--beginning to end
You receive presents and pictures galore
Can your little house hold any more?

Well, Katy, here's where this Poem I'm ending and off to you in the mail--I'm sending
Please won't you marry one of your nice young gents
A lot of time on this Poem I've spent.

Dear Katy,

My husband enjoys your books as well as I do. We think it's wonderful encouragement for budding artists. We have only one complaint — there aren't enough books of Katy.

Mrs. R. L. Lewis
4128 N. Davis
Pensacola, Fla.

Dear Katy,

I have ten dogs, one cat and a parakeet. When I read your comics my parakeet, Chiso, flies up on my shoulder and reads it too. The cat and all ten dogs love you. That is, they act like it!

Your devoted fans (all of us)

Sarah Gilliam
Route 1, Rice, V.

Dear Katy Keene,

My whole family enjoy your books. At night when we finish supper and clean up the house, we sit down and read your comics. My brother and dad like K.O. Kelly. My mother likes Sis and I like you very much.

Dear Katy:

I love your beautiful fashions! I sure wish I could own all of them!

Dear Bill,

Before I was married I was a steady reader of Katy Keene. For that matter, I still am. I have just got up enough nerve to send in some fashions.

Mrs. Betty Lovell
1250 Childs Ave.
Merced, Calif.

Dear Katy,

I buy all of your comics on the news stands and enjoy them all!

The only thing I don't like is your hair style. Many of my friends agree with me that your good friend Gloria should cut your hair in your next book. We all like a hairdo as it is on the top of my letter.

Dear Katy,

In our house we have double trouble—who should read your comics first. My sister and I are twins. We read every comic on the stands that says Katy Keene on it. We have pin-up collections, as well as your cut-out dolls!

Dear Bill Woggon

We just finished reading the latest Katy Keene Comic and I must say they seem to be better each time we get them.

We do want to compliment you on the fine workmanship you put into these comics. They are such clean fun for boys and girls and even we grown-ups enjoy them. We hope that someday these wonderful comics will reach out all over the world.

Since we know Ireland doesn't get these comics, we send a few to our pen pal over there and she really does enjoy them. We usually buy at least two when we buy them so we can send her a copy, as she loves to read them.

Enclosed are a few of our latest designs. I hope you will be able to use them.

Dear Katy and Mr. Woggon,

I have five candy stores around my block, and when your comics come in I am always there first. I have collected (so far) 580 Katy pin-ups and still collecting.

My mother loves your comics and so does the rest of my family. Sis loves candy and so do I. We'd make a peach of a pair.

Melba Williams
12262 Browning Rd.,
Garden Grove, Calif.

Dear Katy,

When I buy your comics I must read them right away or my sisters will take them away and I don't get to read them for quite awhile.

Here is a riddle for you:

Why did Sis go to the refrigerator when she was mad as punch? (To get some "I scold pop.")

Donita Conkling
Rte. 1, Stromburg, Nebr.

Dear Katy Keene,

I wouldn't miss a Katy Keene book for anything in the world. I have been working on a tongue twister for Sis. Sis sat selling sea shells on the sea shore.

Dear Katy,

I love you so much I wish I had a factory all about Katy Keene Comics. Gloria is a little too show-off, Lucki is too Lucky. They're both cute, but oh brother, does Katy beat them!

Dear Mr. Woggon,

My grandmother gave me a heart pillow with lace on it and I sit on my bed like Katy does. I have a girlfriend (she's my favorite) and her name is Karmand, mine is Gloria. I wish you'd make Gloria be real nice sometime.

Dear Katy,

I am the third eldest in a family of six. We are well dressed, which is very fortunate in a family such as ours. We are so happy in our house as we can do many things that smaller families can't.

I love to dream of lovely clothes and I turn out some dandies in my head. I love beautiful people and beautiful clothes, that's why I like you so much, Katy.

Love,

Dear Katy,

Please thank Mr. Woggon for such a wonderful comic, I buy every one I can find and we all read them at home. I save all the pin-ups and cut-out fashions even though I am 17 years old. Please have a lot more fashion cut-outs and pin-ups in your books.
